Quincy, MA (February 8, 2010)-- ETS International, the Boston-area global provider of chauffeur-driven transportation services, is the recipient of Limousine, Charter & Tour Magazine's "2010 Operator of the Year Award."

In presenting the award to ETS International president John M. Greene, Martin Romjue, editor of LCT Magazine, said, "ETS International demonstrates the highest operating standards for a company of its size in the chauffeured transportation industry. Its pursuit of excellence serves as a model for operators nationwide."

ETS International received the award at the annual LCT Operator of the Year Awards Gala in Las Vegas. The award recognizes ETS for excelling in six categories as scored by the judges. including customer service, technology, safety performance, chauffeur/dtaff training, industry and community involvement and media realations and marketing.

ETS International operates a fleet of luxury sedans, SUVs, limousines and executive vans in the Boston and Providence markets, as well as a global network that provides a wide menu of services in cities around the world.

ETS is owned by brothers John M. Greene (President/CEO) and Peter Greene (Executive Vice President of Operations), who have more than 40 years of combined experience owning and managing executive transportation firms. ETS International is also the preferred limousine company of the Boston Bruins Foundation, the Premium Seating Club and the TD Garden.
